

Online Perception Experiments

How to set up a Filezilla on Mac

Na-Young Ryu

University of Toronto

July 11, 2018

Overall procedure

Server Administration

Setting up a web server

Creating an account

Apache Web Server

PHP

Client Operation

Uploading a JsPsych and a JQuery

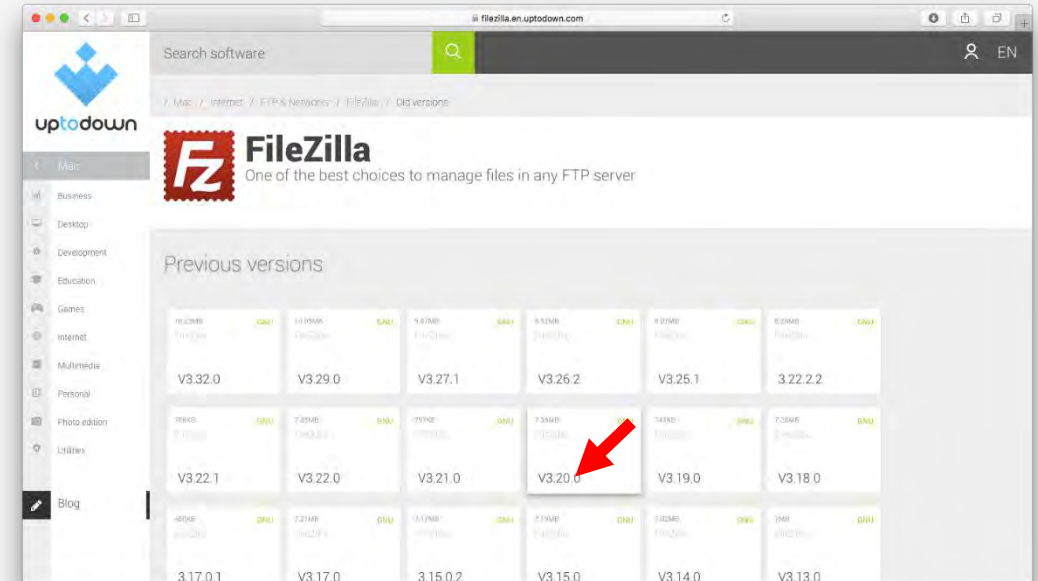

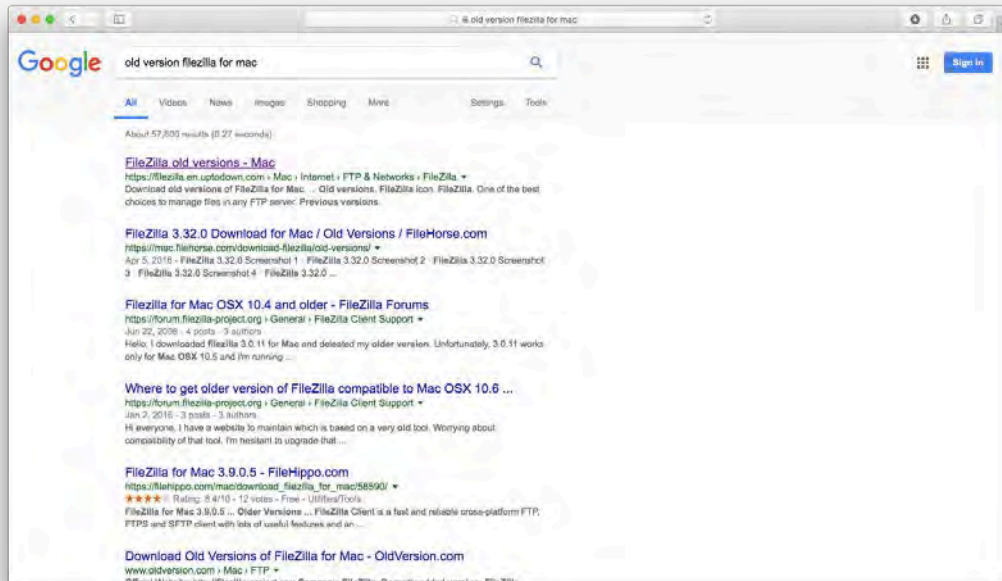

Editing a file with a code editor

Filezilla FTP application

Atom code editor

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

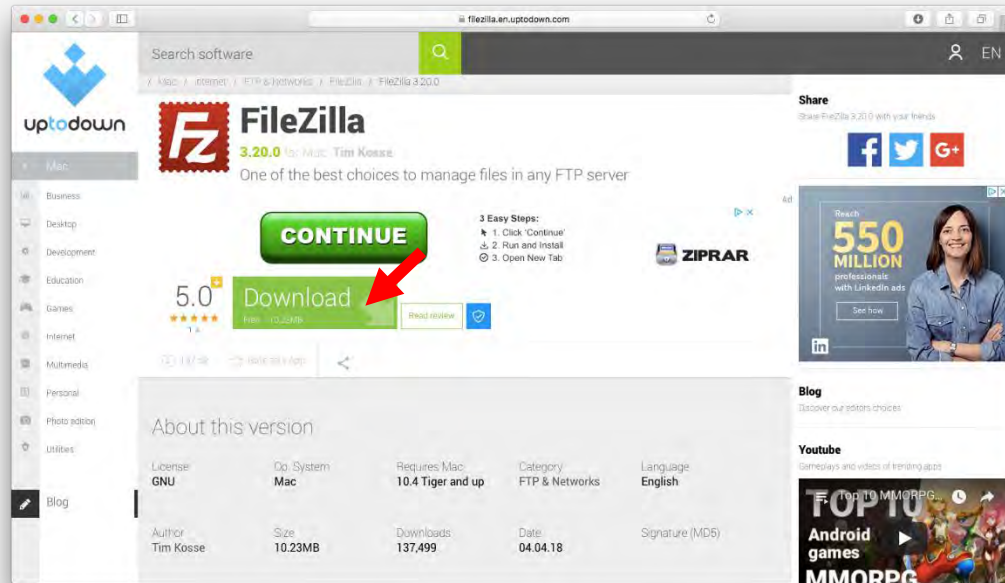

Google "old version filezilla for mac"

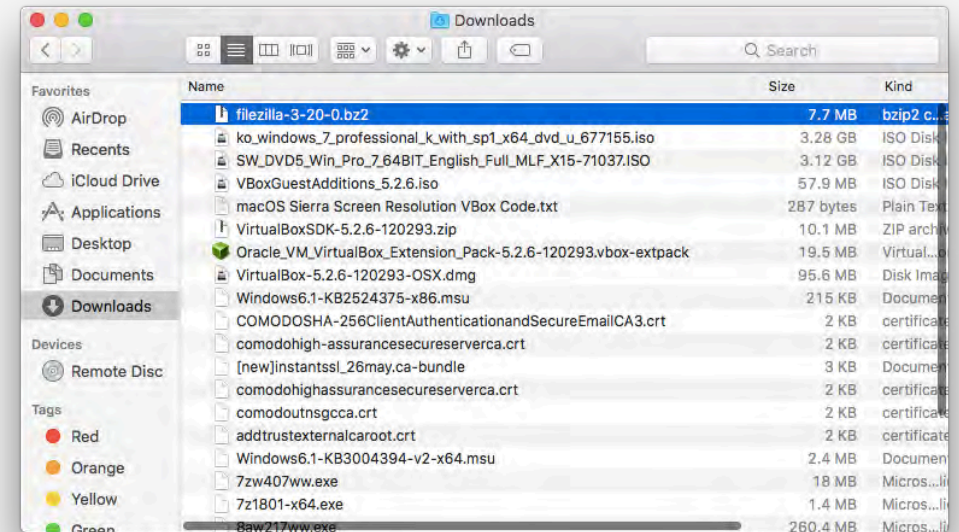

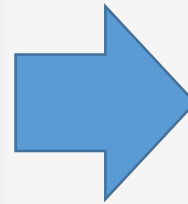

Choose V3.20.0

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

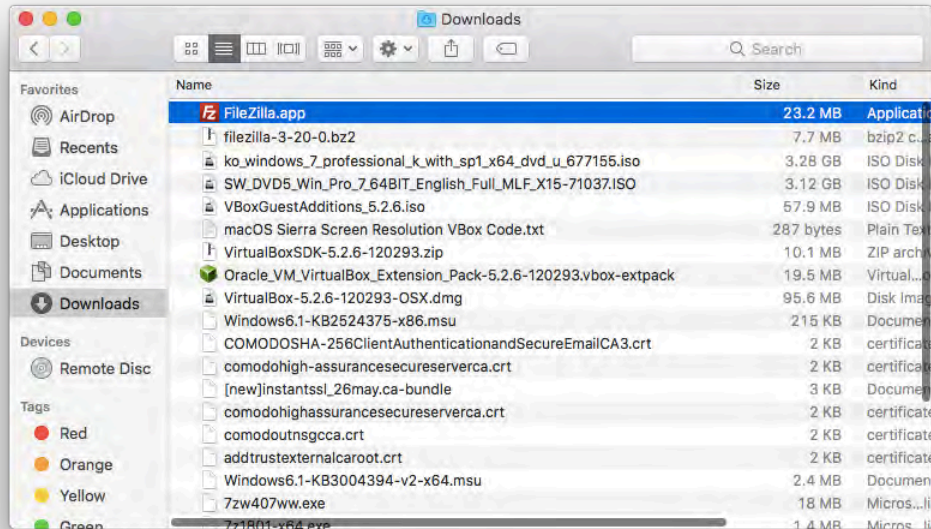

Click "Download" button

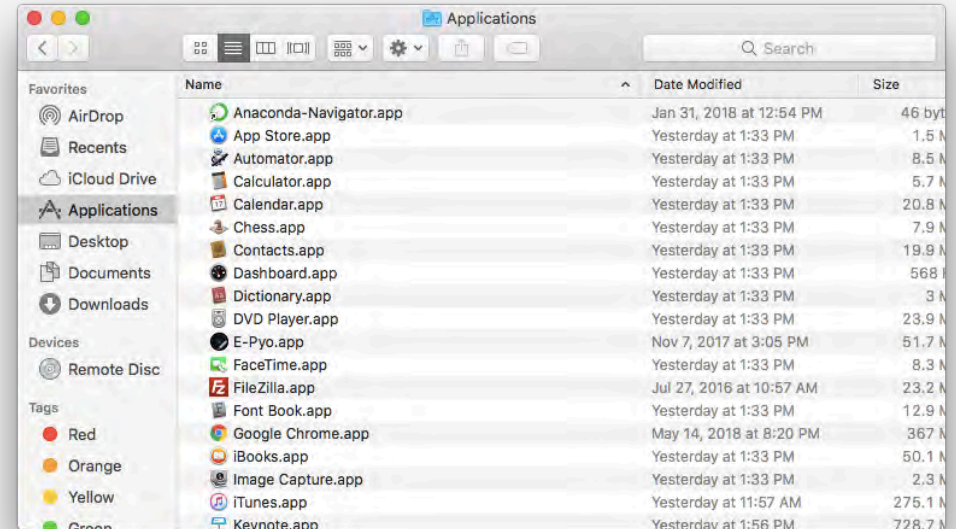

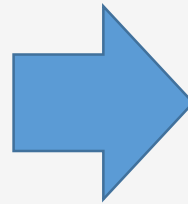

Double click a file "filezilla-3-20-0.bz2"

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

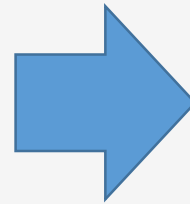

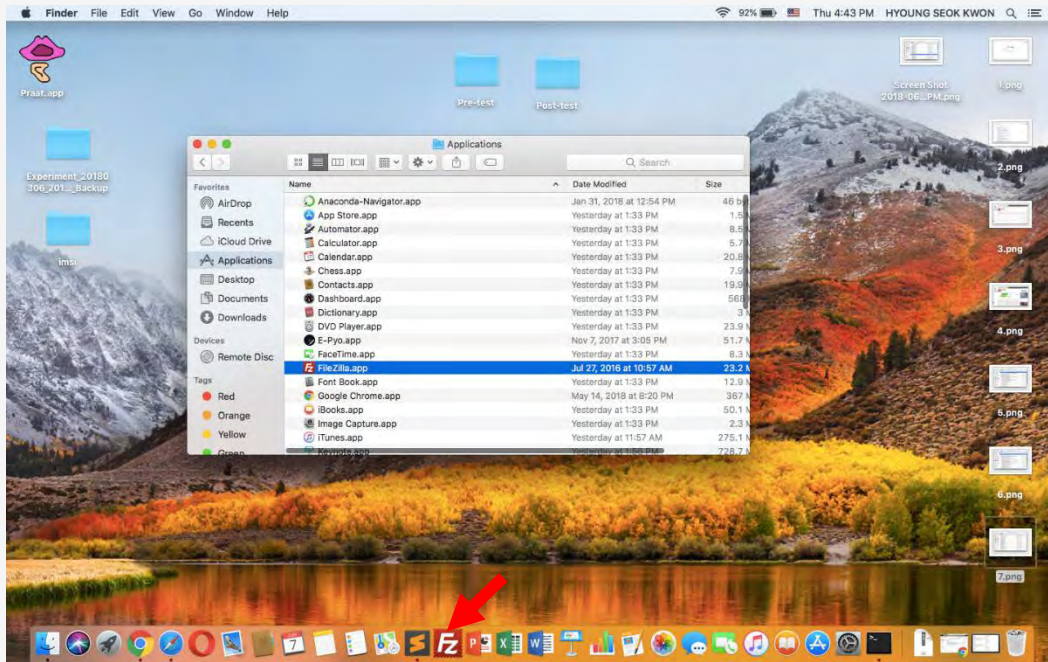

FileZilla.app is created

Move the file to Applications

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

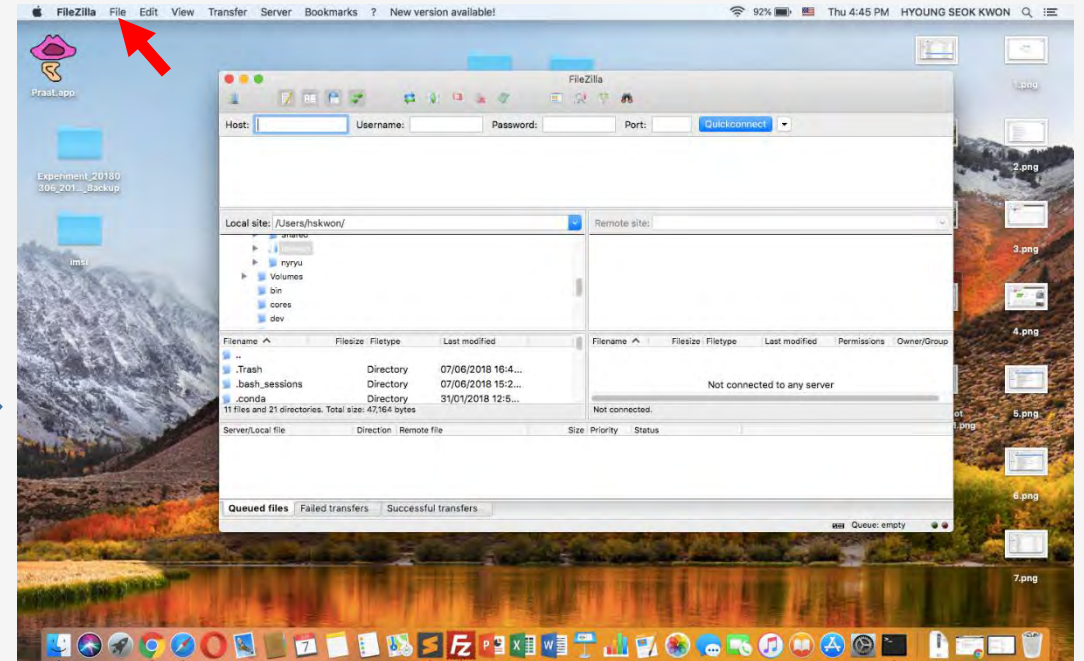

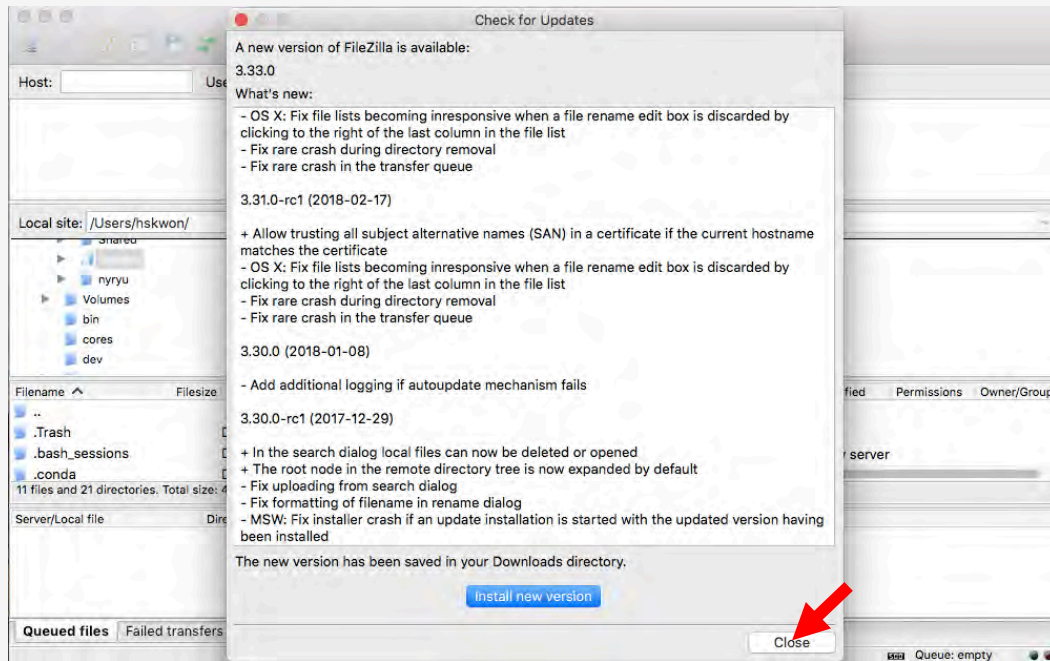

Create a shortcut in the Dock and double Click the Filezilla icon in the Dock

Click "open" in the popup window

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

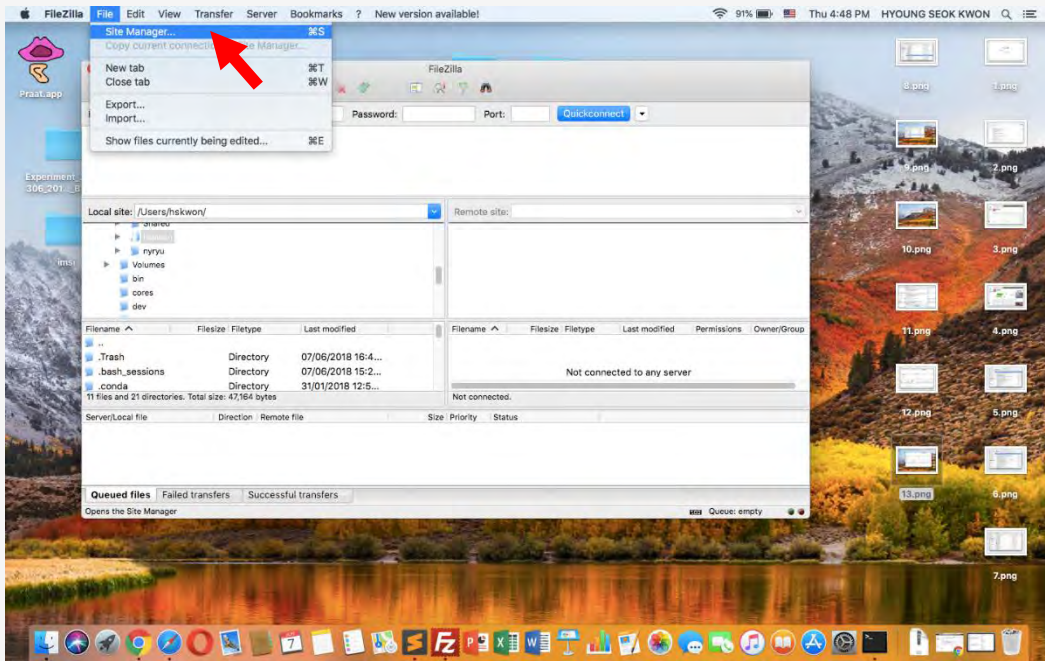

Don't click "install new version" and click "Close"

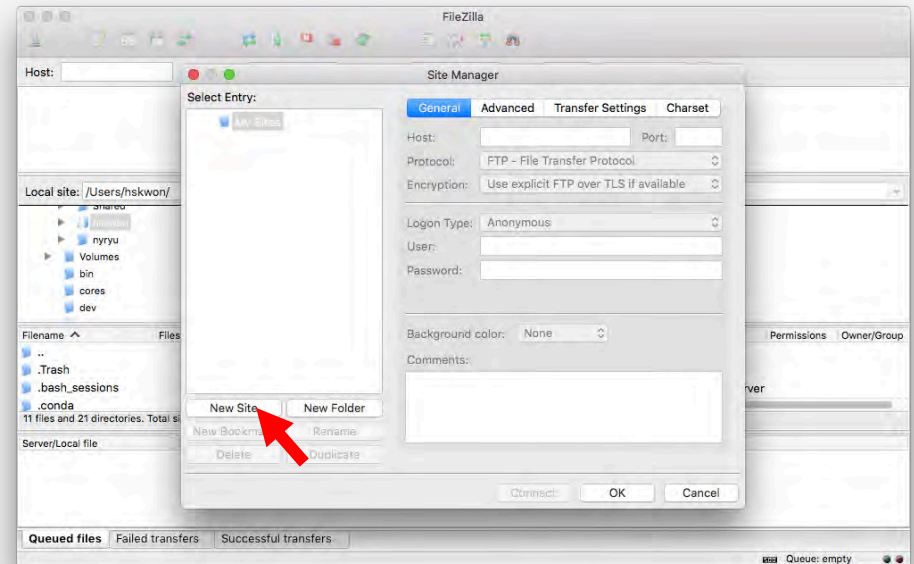

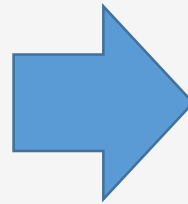

Click "File"

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

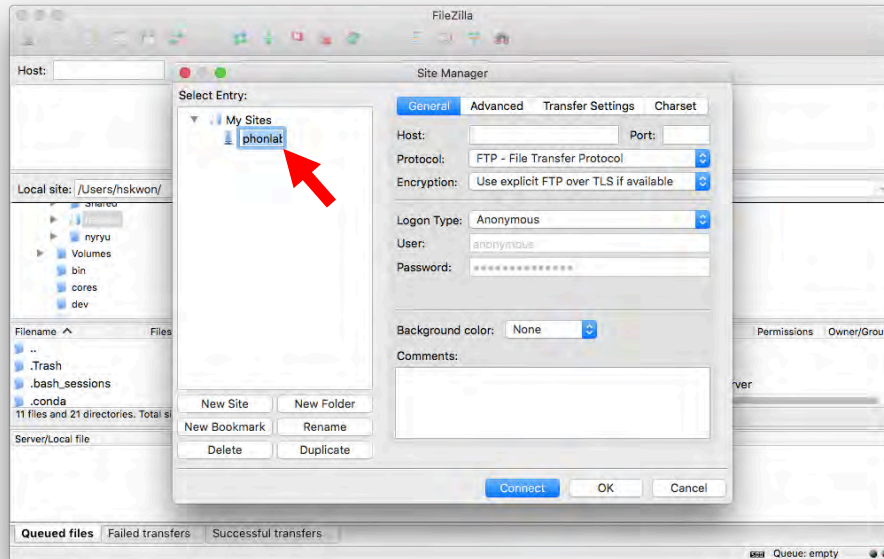

Click "Site Manager"

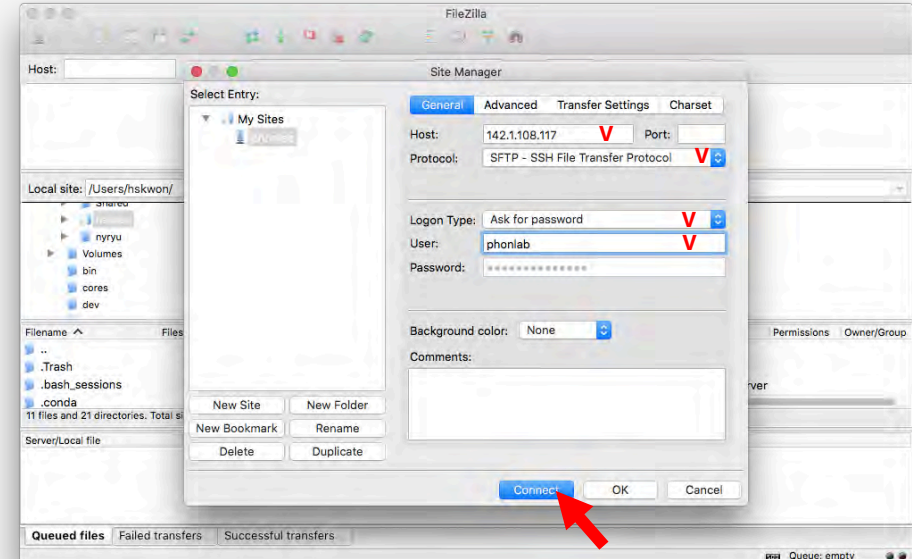

Click "New Site"

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

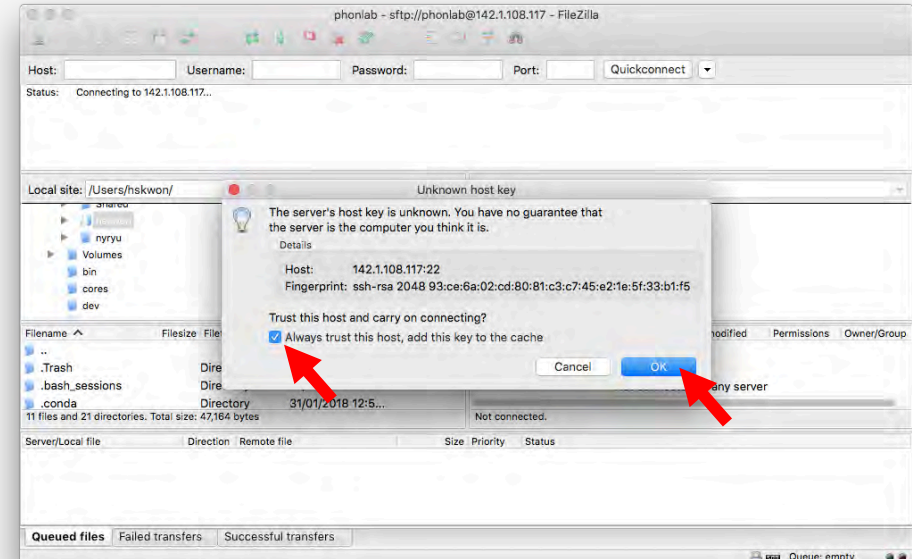

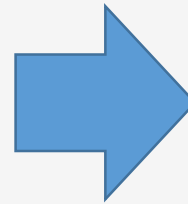

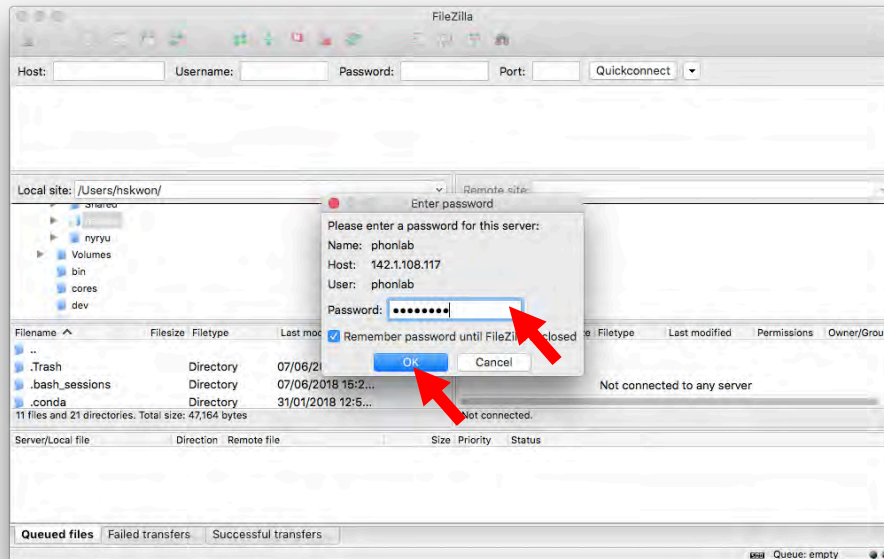

Give a name (ex, phonlab)

Enter "host ip address" and your "user name", change some configuration, and click "Connect"

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

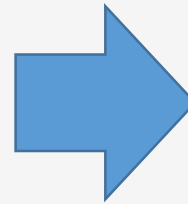

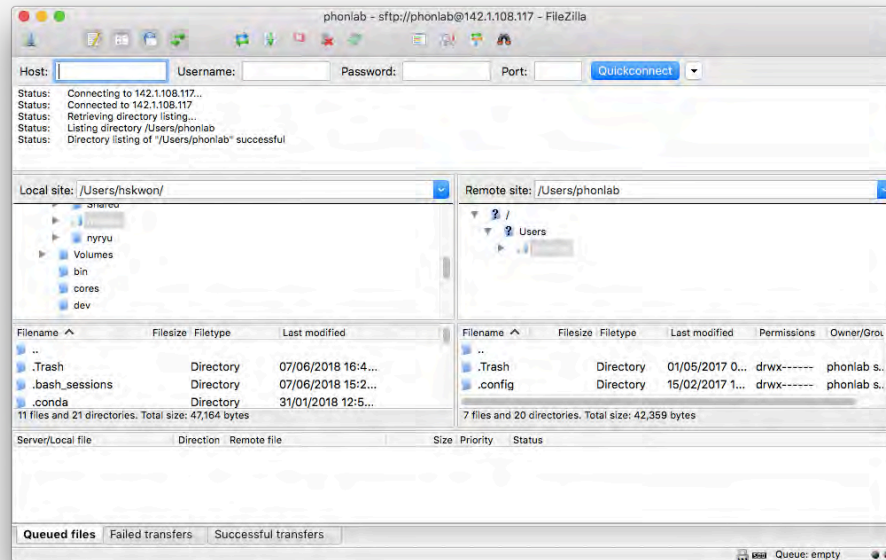

Enter your "password" and click "OK"

Check "Always trust this host, add this key to the cache", and click "OK"

Setting up a Filezilla

1. Client

Server is connected and contents of remote server are on the right